

As a resident of Wisconsin I say that the No Call Laws should remain the same. I do like that the telephone is not ringing every five minutes with someone bothering me about something I'm not interested.